Short, at 0.73 miles in length, the racecourse creatively features an astonishing 10 corners, which make it incredibly dramatic and dynamic and rewards those riders who have mastered The Art of Cornering with a unique chance to show off their talents.

The festivities provide an all out immersion in Sand City's fun & vibrant art scene, with fans amassing at Post No Bills Craft Beer House to take in the finish line's amusement, while craft beer inspired hecklers & revelers noisily line the edges of Hickory Hill.

Vendors, local artisans and the Bianchi Experience Center on Redwood Ave will make this race seem more like a party than the white knuckle sufferfest it promises to deliver for the second year in a row.
