MORE ON THE STREET SPRINTS

One entry fee and registration enters amateur racers into the CLIF Bar Amateur Races, the Washington Street Sprints, and the Amateur Finals (assuming you qualify). The Washington Street Sprints are straight line sprints where riders compete in 4-5 rider heats. Start Line is at Thomas and Washington on the backstretch of the downtown course. Sprints are approximately 200 meters. The finish line is located at the intersection of Washington and College Avenue. Racers need to keep their timing chip from the morning race for the sprints. Finish order will be determined based on fastest time to cover the distance. Winners from each category (not each heat) receive a call-up in the Amateur Finals. If you didn't qualify from the morning races, you get a second chance to qualify for the evening race by placing within the range of qualifiers in the sprints in your category based on the above chart.
