

17th Annual Loon Echo Trek Pledge Form Instructions

Thank you for registering for the 2017 Loon Echo Trek! Your participation helps Loon Echo Land Trust protect conservation land in seven towns in Maine. Help Loon Echo Land Trust even more by encouraging your friends and family to pledge in support of your participation in the Loon Echo Trek! You can collect pledges using the pledge sheet below.

We encourage all of our Trekkers to spread the word about Loon Echo Land Trust's important work. Those who collect at least $250 in pledges will receive a 2018 day pass to Shawnee Peak, and top pledge raisers will earn prizes! Prizes for include:

2017-18 season pass to Shawnee Peak

Three day, two night, all-inclusive stay for two at Migis Lodge

More Prizes coming soon.

- Loon Echo protects more than 6,200 acres of conservation land, including forests, mountains, trails and waterfront land in seven towns in Maine.
- Loon Echo sponsors monthly guided hikes, free of charge, on their lands and trails.
- The Sebago Lake watershed and its dense forest cover provide nearly 10% of the state's population (Greater Portland) with clean, safe drinking water.

Good Luck Trekkers – see you September 16, 2017!
